STATUS

19. 05. 2017

Status is a family company which has been developing vacuum sealed containers since 1995. Their work over the years has been fuelled by the desire to develop products which facilitate our everyday life and make it more beautiful. They believe that only high quality products provide long-term success and customer satisfaction. The process of creating vacuum negative pressure is the only natural way of food storage, it is hygienic, practical, fast, simple and efficient. You can find their products in all BIG BERRY houses and make your culinary moments easier and fun.
